

SCRANTON SKETCHES.

Death of Mrs. Scott--A Pleasant Social--Tobacco Market Urged.

Scranton, August 12:--Mrs Mary Scott of Hartsville died last Friday at her residence there and was brought here Saturday and interred in the Methodist cemetery amid a host of sorrowing relatives and friends, Rev J W Bailey officiating. The deceased was about 64 years old, a former resident of this place, and was the wife of Rev William Scott, a Baptist minister, who preceded her to the grave a number of years ago.

Dr CH Pate went to Hartsville last Sunday, visiting relatives, and returned Monday.

Mr Lowell Lee, now of Spartanburg, visited relatives here last week and also made a trip to Charleston.

Mr H A Graham of Greenwood and Mr H L Graham of Goldsboro, N C, visited relatives here Sunday.

Mr Sam J Kirby took his little son, Liston, to a Florence infirmary Monday, where an operation was necessary to remove the appendix, which was successfully done and he was getting along favorably when last heard from. We hope he will soon be well again.

There was a delightful "social" at the home of Mr Harold Graham Monday evening. Various games were played and the guests were pleasantly entertained throughout the evening. Mr B B Myers and Miss Lalla Lee; Messrs W A Myers and Geo Bailey were those who attended from town.

The latest "dope" is to the effect that one, or may be two, tobacco warehouses are to be built here before the next season. This is the most needed enterprise here, so, business men, get behind the idea, agitate the subject, keep it up, boost it, "everybody's doing it." Don't be satisfied with mere discussion, form your ideas, then take your dollars and form the warehouses. Start it moving. Join in and help, moneyed men. Don't be a "knocker." If the business men of this town want business, build the warehouses; that's what will bring you the "biz."

Lines from Leo.

(Received too late for last week's issue).

Leo, August 11:--Guess the many readers of The Record would like to know what has become of "O K." Sorry to say I have been out three weeks on account of being sick, but am glad I am able to be up again and will give some of the happenings around Leo.

Dr J G Clinkscales of Spartanburg failed to come to Prospect last Sunday on account of being sick. We were very sorry he did not come, as we are always glad to welcome Dr Clinkscales amongst us. Only wish he could stay down here with us all the time.

Tobacco-curing is about over; there are still a few patches about that were set out late. Now it is going to be a race with the man and the worms to see which can house the most of the weed. Tobacco has brought such good prices this year I think the farmers are making up their minds to try next year to make a better grade and a bigger crop.

Miss May Fulton of Fredericksburg, Va, one of our former school teachers, is visiting friends around Leo. All are glad to see Miss May again.

Rev L D Bass gave a lecture Sunday at Prospect church on prohibition. We are always glad to hear these lectures, but if the voters don't turn out to the polls August 19 and vote the dispensary out, the lectures from these good men will not avail much. Now, say brother voter, let us go out to the polls and vote it out and have prohibition in the true sense of the word. O K.

Remarkable Cure for Dysentery.

"I was attacked with dysentery about July 15, and used the doctor's medicine and other remedies with no relief, only getting worse all the time. I was unable to do anything and my weight dropped from 145 to 125 pounds. I suffered for about two months when I was advised to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I used two bottles of it and it gave me permanent relief," writes B W Hill, Snow Hill, C. For sale by all dealers. adv

BENSON BREEZES.

A Happy Occasion--Visitors Coming and Going.

Benson, August 19:--Last Thursday evening, at the hospitable home of Mr T J Phillips, the young folk were invited to a lawn party, where refreshments were delightfully served on little tables, placed some distance apart and purposely arranged so that only two would be seated at one of them, and by some pleasant and inexplicable reason it so occurred that a young lady and her gentleman friend were fortunate to be seated together there. Time was whiled pleasantly away in the lovely moonlight, all being unconscious of the fleeting moments as they were engaged in tete-a-tete conversation until the wee sma' hours reminded them that the best of friends must part.

Miss Ethel Nesmith of Lake City, who taught school here a few years ago, visited her loyal friends in this section a few days last week. Miss Nesmith, after leaving here, spent some time at Columbia University, New York, under the instruction of specialists in her profession. Since then she has attained a degree of enviable success in the class room, having taught under Dr Mann at Florence and Greensboro, N C. She has recently accepted a position as principal of the preparatory department of a female college in Greenville, and will also do some college work there.

Mr Dick Phillips of Dalzell visited relatives here last week.

Miss Ruth Coker, stenographer for Edwin G Seibels, Columbia, after spending a short vacation among relatives and friends here, has returned to resume her duties in the office, where she has been employed for quite awhile.

Miss Leland Phillips of Lamar is visiting at the home of Mr and Mrs T J Phillips.

Mr and Mrs John Y McGill, with their little daughter, Julia Marion, are spending a few days at the Isle of Palms.

Mr W E Nesmith, an energetic, successful business man of Cades, spent a few hours here Saturday.

Dry weather has materially injured the cotton and corn crops in this community, whereas other near sections have been fortunate in having more favorable seasons. W E S.

In Memoriam.

"Gone, thou faithful, loving spirit,
Gone to live in Heaven above;
Gone the Kingdom to inherit
Purchased by the God of love."

Thus we think of Samuel Graham Bryan, eldest child of Walter R and Lizzie Graham Bryan, whose soul, on the 18th of August, 1912, passed from this earthly tabernacle into life everlasting. Sam was just thirty years old and had much to live for, yet he bore his suffering with resignation and faced the inevitable with strength imparted only to the weak who put their trust in a Higher Power.

At the age of twelve he joined Union Presbyterian church and faithfully worked to bring into the Sunday-school and missionary society those who were unconcerned about their souls' salvation. Many will remember how he loved to sing:

"Bring them in, bring them in;
Bring the little ones to Jesus."

He was assistant superintendent of the Sunday-school at the time of his death, which was caused by Bright's disease.

"Saved, saved, but will there be any stars in my crown?" were among his death-bed words.

He leaves a loving wife, mother, father, two brothers, two sisters and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his untimely death.

"How we miss thee, precious loved one,
How our hearts are filled with pain;
But to wish thee back, ah, never!
For our loss is Heaven's gain."

ONE WHO LOVED HIM.

Cades News.

(Received too late for last week's issue).

Cades, August 12:--The Hebron baseball team came up and crossed bats with our nine Saturday and was defeated by a score of 9 to 0. Batteries: Hebron--Baker and Baker; Cades--Eaddy and Clark. A few of the Hebron young ladies came with the team but did not say very much, as the team did not do a great deal. We hope the Hebron boys will learn how to bat before they play us again, for our fielders will forget how to catch a ball if we play them much.

Miss Alice Chandler of Henry has been visiting Miss Ruth Tomlinson, one of her Winthrop friends.

Miss Ethel Fitch of Pergamos is spending a few days with Miss Garnet Graham.

Messrs George and Elbert McElveen have returned from a few days' outing at the Isle of Palms.

Mr G R Bowen of Lake City was noted in town Saturday.

White Oak Chips.

(Received too late for last week's issue).

White Oak, August 12:--Rev J M Baxley of Lake City conducted revival services all last week at the Eaddy school-house, resulting in the conversion of five and the reclamation of one.

The tobacco season is almost over here, or, at least, the most of the "golden weed" is marketed. The farmers are highly pleased, especially with the Kingstree market. Mr R E McElveen offered a load of tobacco at another market recently and, not being satisfied with the price, took it to Kingstree, with the result of deriving $30 clear profit.

Several of the farmers attended the demonstration of the farmers' institute at Mr J J M Graham's Monday. They are all well pleased with what they saw and heard and report having had a good time.

The health of our community is fairly good at present, for which we are very thankful.

Mrs Colee Griffon spent last week with her parents, Mr and Mrs C K Eaddy, and attended the protracted services now in progress at Bethesda M E church, conducted by the pastor, Rev J L Mullinix of Cades.

Quod Erat, Etc.

The average politician, however, is more interested in voters than farmers. --Columbia, S C, State.

Evidently you do not regard Representatives Ragsdale and Henry as "average politicians." Their amendments to the currency bill are made on the single plea that "something should be done for the farmers." Therefore, to follow your logic to its last analysis, the inference is that most of the voters in South Carolina and Texas are farmers. Quod erat demonstrandum. --New York Sun.
